1. The plaintiff, by this plaint, seeks a restraint against various rogue websites, as well as various internet service providers (ISPs) and others who are providing platforms over which content can be uploaded on the internet, from broadcasting or airing any part of the film Jawan, which is produced by the plaintiff and in which, therefore, the plaintiff claims copyright. It is alleged that clips and stills from the film are already available on the internet over various platforms, though no licence, to broadcast or transmit any part of the film has, till date, been granted by the plaintiff to any entity.

2. Mr. Raj Shekhar Rao, learned Senior Counsel for the plaintiff, submits that following the judgments of the learned Single Judge of this Court in *UTV Software Communication Ltd v. 1337x.To*¹, several such orders have been passed by this Court. A list of websites, which have been identified by this Court as rogue websites, which have been indulging in screening and making available, without authorization, among other things, cinematograph films, has also been provided in Schedule A of the documents filed with the plaint.

3. In view of the submissions of Mr. Rao that the plaintiff is the producer of the film and, therefore, the copyright holder of its contents, and that the plaintiff has not licensed the transmission or distribution or broadcasting of the film to any other entity till date, the plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief.

4. Let the plaint be registered as a suit. Issue summons. Summons be served on the defendants by all modes.

5. Written statement, accompanied by affidavit of admission and denial of the documents filed by the plaintiff be filed within 30 days with advance copy to learned Counsel for the plaintiff who may file replication thereto, accompanied by affidavit of admission and denial of the documents filed by the defendants within 30 days thereof.

6. List before the learned Joint Registrar (Judicial) for completion of the pleadings, admission and denial of documents and marking of exhibits on 7th July 2023, whereafter the matter would be placed before the Court for case management hearing and further proceedings.

I.A. 7776/2023(Order XXXIX Rules 1 and 2 of the CPC)

7. By this application, the plaintiff seeks interlocutory injunctive relief. Given the principles of prima facie case, balance of convenience and irreparable loss, the plaintiff is entitled to interlocutory injunctive relief even at this stage.

8. Till the next date of hearing, the following interim directions are passed:

(i) The defendants, as well as all other acting on their behalf, are restrained from copying, recording, reproducing, allowing recording, transmitting, communicating or making available for distribution, duplication, display or release, exhibiting or playing in any manner, any stills, audio/video clips, songs, recordings or other proprietary information relating to the cinematographic film "Jawan" or any part thereof without a proper licence from the Plaintiff, through any medium whatsoever.

(ii) Defendants 2 to 5 are directed to immediately block and, thereafter, take down all infringing contents described at the following URLs, which stand enumerated in Schedule A filed with the plaint, as well as the URLs enlisted in Document 4 filed with the plaint and the clips shown in Document 5 filed with the plaint.
