5. Learned counsel further submits that they were informed about the illegality of the constructions by persons living in the surroundings of such constructions. This is their source of knowledge. The photographs of the properties have also been annexed.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the Petitioner and looking to the facts and circumstances of the case, it appears that this is not a Public Interest Litigation. This is a blackmailing type of litigation.

7. When we put to the learned counsel for the Petitioner that as to how this Petitioner came to know about the illegality of construction of the aforesaid properties which are enumerated in Paragraph 14 at Page 22 of the petition, it is answered by the learned counsel for the Petitioner that persons who are living in surroundings of such constructions have conveyed to this Petitioner. The aforesaid answer is an evasive answer. Petitioner has no knowledge at all about the legality or otherwise of the construction in question for the properties which are mentioned at Page 22 and referred hereinabove.

8. The Petitioner has filed this petition without proper homework and only on being informed by some persons who are moving on road. This is not a method in which Public Interest Litigation can be filed by the Petitioner.

9. When we raised a question to the learned counsel for the Petitioner that whether Petitioner has ever obtained any information about the aforesaid 13 buildings under the Right to Information Act, 2005, the answer is in the negative. Thus, this Petitioner has not tried to get any information about the maps of the construction, etc. from the concerned Respondent authorities or from any competent authority.

10. It ought to be kept in mind that whenever any superstructure is to be demolished, even if it is illegal in nature, the Petitioner ought to have joined owners / occupiers of the superstructure as a party Respondent. No construction can be demolished without hearing the owners / occupiers of the superstructure. In the facts of the present case, this Petitioner has not joined any owner / occupier of the superstructure in question which this Petitioner wants to be demolished.

11. In view of the aforesaid reasons, we do not see any reason to entertain this writ petition and the same is accordingly dismissed with costs of Rs.50,000/- to be deposited by the Petitioner with the Delhi State Legal Services Authority within four weeks from today.
