	CHAPTER – III
	Declaration of Planning areas and constitution of Planning and Development Authorities
5. Declaration of planning areas,	(1) The Government may, by

their amalgamation, sub-division, etc.	notification, declare any area to be a planning area for the purposes of this Regulation, and on such declaration, this Regulation shall apply to such area: Provided that no cantonment area or part thereof shall be included in a planning area. (2) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) shall define the limits of the area to which the notification relates. (3) The Government may, after consultation with the Prescribed Authority, amalgamate two or more planning areas into one planning area or sub-divide a planning area into different planning areas and may include any such sub-divided area or areas in any other planning area. (4) The Government may, by notification, direct that all or any of the

rules, regulations, bye-laws, notifications, orders, directions and powers made, issued or conferred and in force in any planning area at the time of amalgamation, sub-division or inclusion under sub-section (3) shall apply to the planning area or areas as so amalgamated or sub-divided or included, with such exceptions, adaptation or modifications as may be specified in the notification, and thereupon such rules, regulations, bye-laws, orders, directions and powers shall apply to such planning area or areas without further publication.

(5) Where planning areas are amalgamated or sub-divided, or such sub-divided areas are included in any other planning area, the Government shall, after consulting the Planning and Development Authority or Authorities concerned, frame a scheme determining the portion or portions of the balance of the fund of the

	Planning and Development Authorities or Authority which shall vest in the Planning and Development Authority or Authorities concerned and the manner in which the properties and liabilities of the Planning and Development Authority or Authorities shall be apportioned amongst them and on the scheme being notified in the Official Gazette, the fund, property and liabilities shall vest and be apportioned accordingly.
6. Power to withdraw planning area from operation of the Regulation.	(1) The Government may, if it is of opinion that it is necessary so to do in the public interest by notification, withdraw from the operation of this Regulation the whole or part of any planning area. (2) When a notification is issued under sub-section (1) in respect of any planning area or part thereof— (i) this Regulation and all rules, regulations, bye-laws, notifications, orders, directions and powers made, issued or conferred under this Regulation, shall cease to apply to the said area or part and the Planning and Development Authority, if any constituted, under this Regulation shall cease to have jurisdiction in respect of the said area or part, as the case may be; but where any Planning and Development Authority has been constituted exclusively for such area or part, such Authority shall, on the date of the notification stand dissolved;

(ii) the Government shall, after consulting the Planning and Development Authority and the local authority or authorities concerned, frame a scheme determining the portion or portions of the balance of the fund of the Planning and Development Authority concerned which shall vest in the Government and in the local authority or authorities concerned, and the manner in which the properties and liabilities of the Planning and

	Development Authority shall be apportioned between the Government and such local authority or authorities, and on the scheme being notified in the Official Gazette, the fund, property and liabilities of the Planning and Development Authority shall vest and be apportioned accordingly.
7. Constitution of Planning and Development Authority.	(1) As soon as may be, after the declaration of the planning area, the Government, in consultation with the Prescribed Authority, may, by notification, constitute in respect of that area an authority to be called the “Planning and Development Authority” of that area for the purpose of performing the functions assigned to Planning and Development Authorities under this Regulation. (2) Every Planning and Development Authority constituted under sub-section (1) shall be a body corporate by the name aforesaid having perpetual succession and a common seal with power to acquire, hold and dispose of property both movable and immovable, and to contract, and shall by the said name sue and be sued.

(3) Every Planning and Development Authority constituted under sub-section (1) shall consist of the following members, namely:—

(i) a Chairman to be appointed by the Government;

(ii) a Town Planning Officer to be appointed by the Government who shall be the Member Secretary of the Planning and Development Authority;

(iii) representatives of local authorities, to be composed as follows:—

(a) in the case of a planning area in which only one local authority has jurisdiction, a representative nominated by that local authority from among its members and the Chief Executive Officer of that local authority;

(b) in the case of a planning area in which two or more local authorities have jurisdiction, representatives of such local authorities as the Government may consider necessary to be represented;

(iv) such number of other members, not exceeding three, appointed by the Government, who, in the opinion of the Government, have special knowledge of, or practical experience in, matters relating to town and country planning, architecture, engineering, transport, industry, commerce and agriculture.

(4) The Government may, if it thinks fit, appoint one of the members of the Planning and Development Authority as its Vice-Chairman.

(5) The Government may, appoint any local authority as the Planning and Development Authority for the area comprised within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such local authority and for such other contiguous or adjacent area or areas as the Government may declare as a planning area under section 5.

(6) Where a local authority is appointed as a Planning and Development Authority under sub-section (5), the provisions of sub-section (3) of this section and sections 8,10 and 12 shall not apply, and the provisions of the Regulation by which such local authority is constituted shall continue to apply to it in respect of matters covered by the aforesaid sections.

(7) A local authority appointed as a Planning and Development Authority under sub- section (5) shall, for the purpose of performing the functions of a Planning and Development Authority under this Regulation, constitute a Planning Committee consisting of the following members, namely:—

(i) A Chairman;

(ii) the Town Planning Officer, who shall be the Member Secretary to the Committee; and

(iii) five other members, two of whom shall be appointed by the Government.

(8) Every Planning Committee constituted by a local authority under subsection (7) shall have the same status and powers of a Standing Committee appointed by the local authority by the Regulation under which such local authority is constituted and the terms and conditions of the members of the Committee shall be such as may be prescribed.

8. Term of office and conditions of service of the Chairman and members of Planning and Development Authority	(1) The term of office and the conditions of service of the Chairman and members of a Planning and Development Authority (other than the Town Planning Officer) shall be such as may be prescribed. (2) The Chairman or any member of a Planning and Development Authority (other than the Town Planning Officer) may resign his office by giving notice in writing to the Government and on such resignation being accepted, he shall cease to be such Chairman or member. (3) Any vacancy in the membership of a Planning and Development Authority shall be filled by fresh appointment by the Government or by nomination by the local authority concerned, as the case may be, provided that the member appointed or

	nominated shall hold office only for so long as the member in whose place he is appointed or nominated would have held office if the vacancy had not occurred.
9. Functions and powers of Planning and Development Authorities.	Subject to the provisions of this Regulation and the rules framed thereunder and subject to any directions which the Government may give, the functions of every Planning and Development Authority shall be— (a) to prepare an Existing Land Use Map; (b) to prepare an Outline Development Plan; (c) to prepare a Comprehensive Development Plan; (d) to prepare and prescribe uses of land within its area; and

(e) to prepare schemes of development and undertake their implementation,

(f) to carry out surveys in the planning area for the preparation of Outline Development Plan, Comprehensive Development Plan or Town Planning Schemes;

(g) to control the development activities in accordance with the development plan in the planning area;

(h) to enter into contracts, agreements or arrangements with any person or organization as the planning development authority may deem necessary for performing its functions;

(i) to acquire, hold, manage and dispose of property, movable or immovable, as it may deem necessary;

	(j) to execute works in connection with supply of water, disposal of sewerage and provision of other services and amenities; (k) to exercise such other powers and perform such other functions as are supplemental, incidental or consequential to any of the foregoing powers and functions or as may be directed by the Government; and for these purposes, it may carry out or cause to be carried out, surveys of the planning area and prepare report or reports of such surveys, and to perform such other functions as may be prescribed.
10. Meetings of Planning and Development Authority.—	(1) Every Planning and Development Authority shall meet at such times and at such places, and shall subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2), (3) and (4), observe such rules of procedure in regard to the transaction of business at its meetings as may be prescribed.

(2) The Chairman, or in his absence, the Vice-Chairman, if any, or in the absence of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman, any member chosen by the members present from amongst themselves, shall preside at a meeting of the Planning and Development Authority.

(3) All questions at a meeting of the Planning and Development Authority shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting, and in the case of an equality of votes, the person presiding shall have a second or casting vote.

(4) Minutes of the proceedings at each meeting, including the names of the members present, shall be kept in a book to be kept for this purpose and such minutes shall be signed at the next

	ensuing meeting by the person presiding at such meeting, and shall be open to inspection by any member during office hours.
11. Temporary association of persons with the Planning and Development Authority for particular purposes.—	(1) A Planning and Development Authority may associate with itself in such manner and for such purposes as may be prescribed, any person whose assistance or advice it may consider necessary in performing any of its functions under this Regulation. (2) Any person associated with it by a Planning and Development Authority under sub-section (1) for any purpose shall have a right to take part in the meetings of the Planning and Development Authority relevant to that purpose but shall not have a right to vote.
12. Staff of Planning and Development Authority.—	(1) Subject to such control and restrictions as may be prescribed, a Planning and Development Authority may

	appoint such number of officers and staff as may be necessary for the efficient performance of its functions and may determine their designation and grades. (2) The officers and staff of a Planning and Development Authority shall be entitled to receive such salaries and allowances as may be fixed by it and shall be governed by such terms and conditions of service as may be prescribed.
	CHAPTER V
	Present Land Use
13. Preparation of map and register showing present land use.	Every Planning and Development Authority shall, as soon as may be, and not later than six months from the date of its constitution or appointment, as the case may be, or within such further period as the Government may from time to time extend, prepare a land use map (hereinafter in this Chapter referred to as the map) and a land use register

	(hereinafter in this Chapter referred to as the register) in the prescribed form indicating the present use of every piece of land in the planning area: Provided that where a local authority has been appointed as Planning and Development Authority for any planning area and such local authority has prepared a map or a register, or both, in respect of the said area before such appointment, the map or the register so prepared shall be deemed to be a map or register, respectively for the purposes of this section.
14. Notice of preparation of map and register.	(1) After the preparation of the map and register under section 13, the Planning and Development Authority shall publish a public notice stating that such map and register has been prepared, and indicating therein the place or places where copies of the map or register, or both may be inspected, and inviting objections in writing from any person with respect to the map and the register.

(2) Objections, if any, with reference to any map or register shall be communicated to the Planning and Development Authority within thirty days of the publication of the notice referred to in sub-section(1).

(3) After the expiry of the period mentioned in sub-section (2), the Town Planning Officer of the Planning and Development Authority or a Committee appointed by it for the purpose shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to all the persons who have sent in their objections, make a report to the Planning and Development Authority.

(4) The Planning and Development Authority shall consider the report made under sub-section (3) and may make such

	modifications in the map or register or both as it considers proper and adopt the map and the register by means of a resolution. (5) As soon as may be, after the adoption of the map and the register under sub-section (4), the Planning and Development Authority shall publish notice of the adoption of the map and the register and of the place or places where copies of the same may be inspected and shall submit copies of the map and the register to Prescribed Authority and the Government. (6) A copy of the public notice referred to in sub-section (5) shall also be published in the Official Gazette and such publication shall be conclusive evidence that the map and register have been duly prepared and adopted.
15. Power of Government to prepare the map and register.—	(1) Where a map and a register are to be prepared under this Regulation, then—

(a) if within the period specified in section 13 or within such further period as the Government may specify, no map or register has been prepared, or

(b) if at any time the Government is satisfied that the Planning and Development Authority is not taking steps necessary to prepare such a map or register within that period [or if the Government is of the opinion that such a map or register is needed to be prepared by the Chief Town Planner], the Government may direct the Chief Town Planner to prepare a map and register.

(2) The Chief Town Planner shall, after the preparation of the map and register, submit the same to the Prescribed Authority, and the Prescribed Authority shall, for the purpose of adopting the map and register so prepared, follow the procedure and exercise the powers of a

	Planning and Development Authority specified in section 14. (3) Any expenses incurred under this section in connection with the preparation and publication of a map and register in respect of a planning area shall be met by the concerned Planning and Development Authority.

(2) Subject to such rules as may be made for regulating the form and contents of a Comprehensive Development Plan, any such plan shall include such maps and such descriptive matters as may be necessary to explain and illustrate the proposals included in that plan.

20. Power of Government to prepare Development Plan.—	(1) If a Development Plan is not prepared, published and submitted to the Government by a Planning and Development Authority within the period specified in section 16 or section 18, as the case may be, or within the period extended under the proviso to the said sections or if the Government is of the opinion that such a plan is needed to be prepared by the Chief Town Planner], the Government may authorise the Chief Town Planner to prepare such plan and direct the cost thereof to be recovered from the Planning and Development Authority concerned out of its funds. (2) The Chief Town Planner shall, if so authorised under sub-section (1), prepare a Development Plan and submit it to the Government and the Government shall follow in respect of the plan so prepared such procedure and exercise such powers as a Planning and Development Authority would follow or exercise in respect of a Development Plan prepared by it.
21. Consent	(1) As soon as may be, after a

of Government to the publication of notice of preparation of Development Plan.—	Development Plan has been submitted to the Government, but not later than the time prescribed, the Government may direct the Planning and Development Authority to make such modifications in the Development Plan as it thinks fit and thereupon the Planning and Development Authority shall make such modifications. (3) The Government shall, after the modifications, if any, directed by it, have been made, give its approval to the publication of the notice of preparation of a Development Plan under section 22.
22. Public notice of the preparation of the Development Plan.—	(1) As soon as may be, after the approval of the Government is obtained under section 21, the Planning and Development Authority shall publish, by notification, and also in one or more local newspapers, of the preparation of the Development Plan, indicating therein the place or places where copies of the same may be inspected, and inviting objections in writing to the Development Plan within such period as may be specified in the notice: Provided that such period shall not be less than two months from the date of

	publication of the notification. (2) The publication of a notification under sub-section (1) shall, notwithstanding anything contained the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013, be deemed to be a notification duly made under section 11 of the said Act. (3) After the expiry of the period specified in the notification made under sub-section (1), the Planning and Development Authority shall appoint a Committee consisting of the Town Planning Officer and not more than two of its other members, to consider the objections received under sub-section (1) and to report within such time as the Planning and Development Authority may fix in this behalf, with regard to the merits or otherwise of the objections. (4) The Committee appointed under sub-section (3) shall have power to co-opt any other person and any person so co-opted shall have a right to take part in the	Central Act 1 of 1894

	meetings of the Committee, but shall not have a right to vote. (5) The Committee so appointed shall afford a reasonable opportunity of being heard to any person, including representatives of Government Departments or local authorities, who has submitted any objection and who has made a request for being so heard. (6) As soon as may be, after the receipt of the report from the Committee, but not later than the time prescribed by the rules, the Planning and Development Authority shall consider such report and may make such alterations or modifications in the Development Plan as it considers proper, and shall submit the Development Plan with or without alterations or modifications together with the report of the Committee to the Government.
23. Approval by Government.—	As soon as may be, after the submission of the Development Plan under sub-section (6) of section 22, but not later than the time prescribed, the Government, may, either approve the Development Plan or approve it, with such

	alterations or modifications as it may consider necessary, or may return the Development Plan to the Planning and Development Authority to alter or modify the plan or to prepare a fresh plan in accordance with such directions as the Government may issue in this behalf.
24. Coming into operation of Development Plan.—	(1) The Planning and Development authority shall immediately after the Development Plan has been approved by the Government, publish by notification, and also in one or more local newspapers, of the approval of the Development Plan, indicating therein the place or places where copies of the Development Plan may be inspected. (2) The publication by notification of the approval of the Development Plan shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013, be deemed to be a declaration duly made under section 19 of the said Act. (3) The Development Plan shall come into operation from the date of publication	Central Act 1 of 1894

	of the notification under sub-section(1). (4) After the coming into operation of the Comprehensive Development Plan, the Outline Development Plan shall stand altered or modified to the extent the proposals contained in the Comprehensive Development Plan are at variance with the Outline Development Plan.
25. Change of land use from the Outline Development Plan:	(1) At any time after the date on which the outline development plan for an area comes into operation, the Planning and Development Authority may, with the previous approval of the Government, allow such changes in the land use or development from the outline development plan as may be necessitated by topographical cartographical or other errors and omissions, or due to failure to fully indicate the details in the plan or changes arising out of the implementation of the proposals in outline development plan or the circumstances prevailing at any time, by the enforcement of the plan: provided that;- (a) All changes are in public interest;

(b) The changes proposed do not contravene any of the provisions of this Regulation or any other law governing planning, development or use of land within the local planning area; and

(c) The proposal for all such changes are published in or more daily newspapers, having circulation in the area, inviting objections from the public within a period of not less than fifteen days from the date of publication as may be specified by the Planning and development Authority.

(2) The provisions of section 24 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the change in land use or development from the outline development plan.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contrary contained in the Regulation, if the change in land use or development is from commercial or industrial to residential or from industrial to commercial and the stipulated fees paid and the local planning and development authority is informed prior to effecting the change, the

	permission for such change of land use or development shall be deemed to have been given”.
26. Appeal.—	(1) Within one month of the coming into operation of any Development Plan, any person aggrieved by any provisions contained therein may make an application to the District Court questioning the validity of the Development Plan, or any of its provisions on the following grounds, namely:— (i) that it is not within the powers conferred by this Regulation , or (ii) that any requirement of this Regulation or of any rules made thereunder had not been complied with in relation to the making of such Development Plan. (2) The District Court, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the applicant, Planning and Development Authority concerned, Prescribed Authority and Government may— (i) stay, until the final determination of the proceedings, the operation of the Development Plan or the provisions contained therein, in so far as it affects any property of the applicant; and (ii) quash, if it is satisfied that the Development Plan or any provisions

	contained therein are not within the powers conferred by this Regulation, or the rules made thereunder, or that the interests of the applicant have been substantially prejudiced by failure to comply with any requirement of this Regulation or of the rules, the Development Plan or any provisions contained therein generally or in so far as they affect the property of the applicant. (3) Subject to the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), a Development Plan shall not, either before or after it has been approved, be questioned in any manner, in any legal proceedings whatsoever.
27. Alteration of Development Plan and making of minor changes.—	(1) At any time after the date on which a Development Plan for an area comes into operation, and at least once in every ten years after that date, the Planning and Development Authority shall, after carrying out such fresh surveys, as may be considered necessary or directed by the Government, prepare after consultation with the local authorities concerned, if any, and submit to the Government, a Development Plan for any alterations or additions considered necessary to the Development Plan in operation. (2) The provisions of sections 21 to 26 (both inclusive) shall, as far as may be,

	apply to a Development Plan submitted under sub-section(1). (4) At any time after the date on which the Development Plan for an area comes into operation, the Planning and Development Authority may, with the prior approval of the Government, make such minor changes in such Development Plan as may be necessary for correcting any typographical or cartographical errors and omissions or details of proposals not fully indicated in the Plan or changes arising out of the implementation of the proposals in the Development Plan: Provided that all such changes are in the public interest and are notified to the public.
28. Suspension of Development Plan in emergency by Government.—	If the Government is satisfied that a grave emergency exists which necessitates the suspension of any Development Plan or part thereof, it may, by notification, suspend such Development Plan or part, for such period as it thinks fit.
29 Power to acquire land under the Right to Fair Compensation and	Any land required, reserved or designated in a Development Plan shall be deemed to be land needed for a public purpose within the meaning of the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land	Central Act 1 of 1894.

Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013	Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013, and may be acquired in accordance with the provision of that Act.
30. Acquisition of land by according transferable development right.—	(1) The Planning and Development Authority, municipal council or a village panchayat may, with approval of the Government and the consent of the owner, acquire his land for public purpose and the Government may accord him a transferable development right, in lieu of the payment of compensation towards such acquisition, by issuing a Development Right Certificate in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed. (2) The transferable development right could be utilized as additional built up space in such manner as may be prescribed by the owner who may use it himself or transfer it to any other person in full or in part, to use in areas earmarked for the purpose in Development Plan.
31. Acquisition by way of accommodation reservation.—	(1) A Planning and Development Authority, municipal council or a village Panchayat may, with the consent of the owner, get transferred his land and amenity in its favour for public purpose as

	specified in the Development Plan, by way of accommodation reservation, in such manner as may be prescribed. (2) The owner of such land shall develop such amenity and hand it over to the said authority free of cost and thereafter he shall himself utilize the developmental right equivalent to full permissible Floor Area Ratio.
32. Preservation of natural reserves and resources for posterity.—	A Planning and Development Authority, municipal council or a village Panchayat may with approval of the Government and the consent of the owner, withdraw or sever the development right or potential in respect of land identified for conservation or preservation in Development Plan and the Government may allot the development right, thus removed, or severed to other area which is more suitable for development by way of transferable development right for posterity in such manner as may be prescribed.
	CHAPTER – VII
	Control of Development and Use of Land
33. Land use to conform to Development Plan.—	On and from the date on which a public notice of the preparation of a Development Plan is published under sub-section (1) of

	section 22, every land use, every change in land use and every development in the area covered by the Development Plan shall conform to the provisions of this Regulation and the Development Plan as finally approved by Government under section 23: Provided that the Planning and Development Authority may allow the continuance, for a period not exceeding ten years, of the use, upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by regulations made in this behalf, of any land to the extent to which it was used on the date on which such public notice is published.
34. Setting up of Eco Tourism Activities.—	Notwithstanding anything contained in this Regulation, or, Outline Development Plan, or a Comprehensive Development Plan or a Land Use Plan prepared under this Regulation, or in any of the provisions of Land Revenue and Tenancy Regulation, 1965 or any other law for the time being in force, an Applicant who desires to set up any Eco Tourism activity permitted in the Eco Sensitive Zone Notification, in Eco Sensitive Zones declared under the Environment Protection Act, 1986 and the Rules framed there under by the Ministry of Environment and Forest, Government of India, shall not be required to obtain any

	conversion of land, or any change of zoning or change of land use or any change of land either under this Regulation or any other maps or plans finalised there under, or Regulations or Land Revenue and Tenancy Regulation, 1965: Provided that such project or Eco Tourism Activity can be set up to an extent of 5% of the total area and that the minimum area required is not less than 20,000 sq. metres: Provided further that persons desirous of setting up of any such Eco Tourism Activities shall be required to obtain prior approval of the Union Territory Level Eco Sensitive Zone Monitoring Committee or such other Authority, as may be designated from time to time as well as the construction licence in terms of Land Revenue and Tenancy Regulation, 1965, but shall not require any Land Use, or Conversion Sanad or change of Zoning or Area Conversion under the local laws.
35. Prohibition of Development without payment of development charges and without	Subject to the other provisions of this Regulation, no development, in respect of, or change of use of, any land shall be undertaken or carried out, in an area after the application of this Regulation to such

permission.—	area— (a) without obtaining a certificate from the Planning and Development Authority concerned that the development charge as leviable under this Regulation has been paid or that no such development charge is leviable; and (b) without obtaining a permission under section 35: Provided that no such permission shall be necessary— (i) for carrying out such works for the maintenance, improvement or other alteration of any building which affects only its interior or which do not materially affect the external appearance of the building; (ii) subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of section 35 for the carrying out by the Central Government or the Government or any local authority, of— (a) any work required for the maintenance or improvement of a highway, road or public street, being work carried out on land within the boundaries
----------------------------	---	--

	of such highway, road or public street; (b) any work for the purpose of inspecting, repairing or renewing any drains, sewers, mains, pipes, cables or other apparatus, including the breaking open of any street or other land for that purpose; (iii) for the excavations (including wells) made in the ordinary course of agricultural operations; (iv) for the construction of unmetalled roads intended to give access to land solely for agricultural purposes; (v) for the normal use of land which may be used temporarily for other purposes; (vi) in the case of land normally used for one purpose and occasionally used for any other purpose, for the use of land for that other purpose on occasions; or (vii) for the use, or for any purpose incidental to the use, of a building for human habitation, or any other building or land attached to such building.

35. Grant of permission.—	(1) Any person intending to carry out any development in respect of, or change of use of, any land shall make an application in writing to the Planning and Development Authority for permission in such form and containing such particulars and accompanied by such documents and plans as may be prescribed. (2) (a) In the case of a Department of the Central Government or Union territory Administration or local authority intending to carry out any development in respect of, or change of use of any land, the Department or authority concerned shall notify in writing to the Planning and Development Authority of its intention to do so, giving full particulars thereof accompanied by such documents and plans as may be prescribed, at least two months prior to the undertaking of such development or change, as the case may be, and shall obtain permission in respect thereof. (b) Where the Planning and Development Authority has raised any objection in respect of the conformity of the proposed development or change of use either to any Development Plan under preparation or to any of the regulations in

force at the time, or due to any other material consideration, the Department or authority concerned, as the case may be, shall, either make the necessary modifications in the proposals for such development or change of use to meet the objections raised by the Planning and Development Authority or submit the proposal for such development or change of use together with the objections raised by the Planning and Development Authority to the decision of the Government.

(c) The Government on receipt of such proposals together with the objections of the Planning and Development Authority shall, in consultation with the Chief Town Planner, either approve the proposals with or without modifications or direct the Department or authority concerned, as the case may be, to make such modifications in the proposals as they consider necessary in the circumstances.

(3) On an application having been duly made under sub-section (1), and on payment of the development charges, if any, as may be assessed under Chapter IX, the Planning and Development Authority may—

| | (a) pass an order— (i) granting permission unconditionally;
or (ii) granting permission subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose; or (iii) refusing permission; or (b) without prejudice to the generality of clause (a), impose conditions— (i) to the effect that the permission granted is only for a limited period and that after the expiry of that period, the land shall be restored to its previous condition or the use of the land so permitted shall be discontinued; or (ii) for regulating the development or use of any land under the control of the applicant or for the carrying out of works on any such land as may appear to the Planning and Development Authority expedient for the purpose of the permitted development. (4) The Planning and Development Authority in dealing with the applications | |

	for permission under this section shall have regard to— (i) the provisions of any Development Plan which has come into operation; (ii) the proposals or provisions which it thinks are likely to be made in any Development Plan under preparation, or to be prepared; (iii) to the relevant bye-laws or regulations of the local authority concerned; and (iv) any other material consideration. (5) When permission is granted subject to conditions or is refused, the grounds for imposing such conditions or such refusal shall be recorded in writing in the order and such order shall be communicated to the applicant in the manner prescribed.
36. Appeal against orders passed or omitted to be passed under section 44.—	(1) Any applicant may appeal to the Prescribed Authority, (a) where he is aggrieved by an order passed under section 35 within two months of the communication of that order to him, (b) where no order is passed, after the expiry of a period of three months from the date of submission of the application.

(2) An appeal under sub-section (1) shall be preferred in such manner and accompanied with such fees, not exceeding ten thousand rupees, as may be prescribed.

(3) The Prescribed Authority may, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the appellant and the concerned Planning and Development Authority, pass an order—

(a) granting permission unconditionally;
or

(b) granting permission subject to such conditions as it may think fit; or

(c) removing the conditions subject to which permission has been granted and imposing such other conditions, if any, as it may think fit; or

(d) refusing permission:

Provided that the Prescribed Authority shall dispose of every appeal within three months of the date of preferring the same and if not so disposed it shall be deemed that the prayer of the appellant is granted.

37. Validity of permission.—	Every permission granted under this Regulation shall remain in force for a period of three years from the date of such permission: Provided that the Planning and Development Authority may, on application made in this behalf before the expiry of the said period, extend such period, by such period or periods as it may think proper; so, however, that the total period extended shall in no case exceed three years: Provided further that the lapse of any such permission shall not bar any subsequent application for fresh permission under this Regulation.
38. Obligation to acquire land on refusal of permission or on grant of permission in certain cases.—	(1) Where any person aggrieved by an order in appeal under section 36 refusing to grant permission or granting permission subject to conditions, claims— (a) that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in the existing state, or (b) in a case where permission was granted subject to conditions, that the land cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by carrying out the development in accordance with such conditions, he may, within three months from the date of passing of such order and in the manner prescribed, serve on the Government, a notice requiring the Government to acquire his interest in such land (hereinafter in this section and in section 46, referred to as an acquisition notice).

(2) A copy of the acquisition notice shall also be served on the Prescribed Authority and the Planning and Development Authority concerned.

(3) After receiving the notice under sub-section (1) the Government shall appoint a person who shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the person serving the acquisition notice, the concerned Planning and Development Authority and the Prescribed Authority, submit a report thereon to the Government.

(4) After receiving the report under sub-section (3), the Government shall—

(a) (i) if it is satisfied that any of the conditions specified in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) is not fulfilled; or

(ii) if the order appealed against was passed on the ground that any of the provisions of this Regulation or the rules made thereunder had not been complied with, pass an order refusing to confirm the notice; or

(b) if it is satisfied that any of the conditions specified in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) is fulfilled, pass an order—

(i) confirming the notice; or

(ii) directing the Planning and Development Authority to grant such permission or to alter the conditions in such a way as will keep the land or part thereof capable of reasonably beneficial use.

(5) If within the period of one year from the date on which an acquisition notice is served under sub-section (1), the Government had not passed any order under sub-section (4), the notice shall be

	deemed to have been confirmed on the expiration of such period. (6) On an acquisition notice being confirmed under sub-section (4) or deemed to have been confirmed under sub-section(5),the Government shall proceed to acquire the land or part thereof in respect of which the notice has been confirmed, within one year of such confirmation.
39. Compensation for refusal of permission or grant of permission subject to conditions in certain cases.—	(1) Where an order in appeal under section 36 refusing to grant permission to develop the land or granting of such permission subject to conditions, relates to,— (a) the re-erection of a building which has been destroyed or demolished and such re-erection does not exceed the cubic content of the original building by more than one-tenth; or (b) the enlargement, improvement or other alteration of any building which was in existence on the date of coming into operation of the Development Plan for the first time, and such enlargement or improvement or alteration does not exceed the cubic content of that building by more than one tenth; or

(c) the carrying out, on any land used for the purposes of agriculture, of any building or other operation required for that purpose, other than operations for the erection, enlargement, improvement or alteration of a building for human habitation or of a building used for the purpose of marketing the produce of land; or

(d) where any part of any building or other land which on the date of coming into operation of the Development Plan for the first time is used for a particular purpose, the use for that purpose of any additional part of the building or land not exceeding one-tenth of the cubic content of the part of the building used for that purpose on that date, or as the case may be, one-tenth of the area of the land so used on that date, the owner may, if he had not served an acquisition notice under section 38 or if he had served such notice, the same had not been confirmed under that section, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, claim upon the Planning and Development Authority compensation for the refusal of such permission or for the grant thereof subject to conditions:

Provided that no compensation shall be claimed if such refusal or grant of permission subject to conditions was by reason of any provision in the Development Plan.

(2) The compensation, if any, payable under sub-section (1) shall be equal to—

(a) where permission is refused, the difference between the value of the land if the permission had been granted and the value of the land in its existing state; or

(b) where permission is granted subject to conditions, the difference between the value of the land if the permission had been granted unconditionally and the value of the land when permission is granted subject to conditions.

(3) When a claim under sub-section (1) is received by the Planning and Development Authority, it shall, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the claimant, assess the amount of compensation payable and offer it to the claimant.

	(4) If the claimant does not accept the compensation offered under sub-section (3) and gives notice, within such time as may be prescribed, of such refusal, the Planning and Development Authority shall refer the matter for the adjudication of the District Court and the decision of that court shall be final and binding on the owner and the Planning and Development Authority.
40. Sanction for sub-division of plot or layout of private street and restriction on registration of purchase, sale or transfer of immovable property.—	(1) Any person intending to sub-divide his plot or make or layout a private street, on or after the date on which a public notice of the preparation of a Development Plan is published under sub-section (1) of section 22, shall submit the layout plan together with the prescribed particulars to the Planning and Development Authority for sanction. (2) The Planning and Development Authority may within the prescribed period, sanction such plan either with or without modifications and conditions as it considers expedient or may refuse to give sanction if it is of the opinion that such sub-division, making or layout is not in conformity with the proposals contained in a Development Plan.

(3) When the sanction is granted subject to conditions or refused, the grounds for imposing such conditions or such refusal shall be recorded in writing in the order and such order shall be communicated to the applicant in the manner prescribed.

(4) If any person does any work in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) or in contravention of the modifications and conditions of the sanction granted under sub-section (2) or in spite of the refusal of sanction under sub-section (2), the Planning and Development Authority may direct such person by notice in writing to stop any work in progress and after making an inquiry in the prescribed manner, remove or pull down any work or restore the land to its original condition.

(5) Any expenses incurred by the Planning and Development Authority under sub-section (4) shall be a sum due to the Planning and Development Authority under this Regulation from the person in default.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, where any document required to be registered under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 29 of the Registration Act, 1908, purports to transfer, assign, limit or extinguish the right, title or interest of any person, in respect of plots which are not as per Survey Plan issued by Survey Department or plots which have no development permissions for such sub-division from Planning and Development Authority within a planning area, no registering officer appointed under the Regulation, shall register any document, unless the owner of such plot produces a certificate of sanction or a certificate of "no objection" from the Planning and Development Authority exercising jurisdiction in respect of the planning area:

Provided that no such certificate of sanction or "no objection" shall be required to be produced if the sub-division of land or the making or layout of any property results from the right of inheritance within a family:

Provided further that no such certificate of sanction or no objection shall be required to be produced for the purpose of

	mortgaging immovable property in favour of any financial institution notified by the Government by a notification in the Official Gazette, for the purpose of this Regulation
41. Power to revoke or modify permission to develop.—	(1) If it appears to the Planning and Development Authority that, having regard to the Development Plan prepared or under preparation or to be prepared and any other material consideration, it is necessary and expedient that any permission to develop land granted under this Regulation or any other law, ought to be revoked or modified, it may, by order, revoke or modify such permission to such extent as appears to it to be necessary: Provided that— (a) where the permission relates to the carrying out of building or other operations, no such order, (i) shall affect such of the operations as have been previously carried out; or (ii) shall be passed after such operations have been completed; (b) where permission relates to a change of use of land no such order shall be passed at any time after such change has taken place.

(2) When permission is revoked or modified by an order made under sub-section (1), the owner may, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, claim compensation for the expenditure incurred in carrying out any work in accordance with such permission and which has been rendered abortive by the revocation or modification of permission.

(3) Where a claim under sub-section (2) is received by the Planning and Development Authority it shall, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the claimant assess the amount of compensation payable and offer it to the claimant.

(5) If the claimant does not accept the compensation offered under sub-section (3), and gives notice, within such time as may be prescribed, of such refusal, the Planning and Development Authority shall refer the matter for the adjudication of the District Court and the decision of that court shall be final and binding on the claimant and the Planning and Development Authority.

42. Cancellation of permission on ground of material misrepresentation, fraudulent statement or information:	(1) If at any time after permission has been granted under section 35, 36, 37 & 38 the Authority granting such permission is satisfied that such permission was granted in consequence of any material misrepresentation made or any fraudulent statement or information furnished, the Prescribed Authority may, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the person in whose favour the permission had been granted, cancel such permission for reasons to be recorded in writing and any development carried out without proper permission shall be treated as unauthorised development in terms of the provisions of sections 43 and 44 and proceeded with accordingly. (2) The decision of the Prescribed Authority in this respect shall be final and no appeal shall lie against such decision.”
43. Penalty for unauthorised Development, etc.—	(1) Any person who, either by himself or at the instance of any other person, commences, undertakes or carries out development of, or changes the use of any land— (a) in contravention of any Development Plan; or

(b) without obtaining a certificate regarding development charge under section 34; or

(c) without the permission as required under this Regulation; or

(d) in contravention of any condition subject to which such permission has been granted; or

(e) after the permission for development has been revoked under section 41; or

(f) in contravention of the permission which has been modified under section 41, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to Two lakh rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention with a further fine which may extend to twenty thousand rupees for every day during which such contravention is continued after conviction for the first such contravention.

(2) Any person who continues to use or allows the use of any land or building in contravention of the provisions of a Development Plan without having been allowed under section 33, or where the

	continuance of such use has been allowed under that section, continues such use after the period for which the use has been allowed or without complying with the terms and conditions under which the continuance of such use is allowed, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees, and in the case of a continuing contravention with a further fine which may extend to five thousand rupees for every day during which such contravention is continued after conviction for the first such contravention. (3) An offence under this section shall be cognizable
44. Power to require removal of unauthorised development.—	(1) Where any development or change of use of land has been carried out in any manner specified in clauses (a) to (f) of sub-section (1) of section 43, the Planning and Development Authority may, serve on the owner a notice requiring him, within such period, being not less than one month from the date of service of such notice as may be specified therein, to take any of the following steps as may be specified in the notice, namely:— (a) in the cases specified in clause (a) or clause (c) or clause (e) of the said sub-section to restore the land to its condition before the said development took place;

(b) in the cases specified in clause (d) or clause (f) of the said sub-section to secure compliance with the conditions subject to which the permission was granted or with the permission as so modified;

(c) in the cases specified in clause (b), to pay the development charge and such penalty, if any, as may be prescribed, and in particular, such notice may, for any of the purposes aforesaid require—

(i) the demolition or alteration of any building or work;

(ii) the carrying out on land, of any building or other operations; or

(iii) the discontinuance of any use of land:

Provided that in case the notice required the discontinuance of the use of any land, the Planning and Development Authority shall serve a notice on the occupier also.

(2) Any person aggrieved by a notice served under sub-section (1) may within such period and in such manner as may be prescribed—

(a) apply for permission under section 35 for the retention on the land of any buildings or works or for the continuance of any use of the land, to which the notice relates; or

(b) appeal to the Prescribed Authority.

(3) Where an application for permission has been made under clause (a), or an appeal has been preferred under clause (b), of sub-section (2), the notice served under sub-section (1) shall have no effect until the final determination or withdrawal of the application or the appeal, as the case may be.

(4) Where permission is granted on an application referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (2), the notice issued under sub-section (1) shall not have effect and where such permission is granted for the retention only of some building or work or for the continuance of use of only a part of the land, such notice shall not have effect regarding such building or work or such part of the land, but shall have full effect regarding other buildings or works or other parts of the land.

(5) Where an appeal has been preferred under clause (b) of sub-section (2), the Prescribed Authority shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the appellant and the Planning and Development Authority concerned, allow or dismiss the appeal either by quashing or varying the notice as it may think fit.

(6) If within the period specified in the notice or within such period after the disposal or withdrawal of an application for permission or an appeal under sub-section (2), as may be prescribed, the notice or so much of it as continues to have effect or the notice with variations made in such appeal is not complied with, the Planning and Development Authority may—

(a) prosecute the owner for not complying with the notice and in case where the notice required the discontinuance of any use of land, also any other person who uses the land or causes or permits the land to be used in contravention of the notice; and

	(b) in the case of a notice requiring the demolition or alteration of any building or work or other operations, itself cause the restoration of the land to its condition before the development took place and secure the compliance with the conditions of the permission or with the permission modified by taking such steps as the Planning and Development Authority may consider necessary including demolition or alteration of any building or works or carrying out of any building or other operations and may recover the cost of any expenses incurred by it in this behalf from the owner as arrears of land revenue. 7) Any person prosecuted under clause (a) of sub-section (6) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to One lakh rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention with a further fine which may extend to one thousand rupees for every day during which such contravention continued after conviction for the first such contravention. (8) An offence under this section shall be cognizable
45. Power to stop unauthorised development.—	(1) Where any development or change of use of land is being carried out in any manner specified in clauses (a) to (f) of sub-section (1) of section 43, but has not been completed, the Planning and Development Authority may serve on the owner and the person carrying out the development or change a notice requiring such development or change of use of land to be discontinued from the date of service of such notice.

(2) Where a notice has been served under sub-section (1) the person aggrieved by such notice may appeal to the Government or Prescribed Authority and the provisions of sub-sections (5) and (6) of section 44 shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary.

(3) Any person, who continues to carry out the development of land, whether for himself or on behalf of the owner or any other person, even after a notice has been served under sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one lakh rupees and when the non-compliance is a continuing one, with a further fine which may extend to one thousand rupees for every day after the date of the service of the notice during which the non-compliance has continued or continues.

	(4) If a notice under sub-section (1) is not complied with forthwith, the Planning and Development Authority or such officer of the Authority as may be authorised by it in this behalf may require any police officer to remove such person and all assistants and workmen from the land and such police officer shall comply with such requisition. (5) Where action had been taken by a police officer under sub-section (4), the Planning and Development Authority or the officer referred to in that sub-section shall take necessary steps to ensure that such development is not continued. (6) Any expenses incurred by the Planning and Development Authority under sub-section (4) and sub-section (5) shall be paid by the person at whose instance such development is being continued or to whom notice under sub-section (1) was given and shall be recoverable from such person as an arrear of land revenue. (7) An offence under this section shall be cognizable
46. Power to require removal	(1) If it appears to a Planning and Development Authority that it is expedient

of authorised development or use.—	in the interests of the proper planning of its area (including the interests of amenities) or having regard to the Development Plan prepared, or to be prepared and on any other material consideration— (a) that any use of land should be discontinued; or (b) that any conditions should be imposed on the continuance of use of any land; or (c) that any building or work should be altered or removed; it may, by notice served on the owner— (i) require the discontinuance of that use; or (ii) impose such conditions, as may be specified in the notice, on the continuance of the use of the land; or (iii) require such steps, as may be specified in the notice to be taken for the alteration or removal of any building or work, as the case may be, within such period, being not less than one month from the date of service of such notice, as may be specified therein.

(2) Any person aggrieved by such notice may appeal to the Prescribed Authority within such period and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) If an appeal is filed under sub-section (2), the provisions of sub-sections (5) and (6) of section 44 shall apply, with such modifications as may be necessary.

(4) If any person—

(a) who has suffered damage in consequence of the compliance with the notice by the depreciation of any interest in the land to which he is entitled or by being disturbed in his enjoyment of the land, or

(b) who has carried out any works in compliance with the notice, claims from the Planning and Development Authority, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, compensation in respect of that damage, or of any expenses reasonably incurred by him for complying with the notice, the provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 41 shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary.

	(5) (a) If any person interested in the land in respect of which a notice is issued claims that by reason of compliance with the notice, the land will become incapable of reasonably beneficial use, he may within the period specified in the notice or within such period after the disposal of the appeal if any, filed under sub-section (2) and in the manner prescribed serve on the Government an acquisition notice requiring his interest in the land to be acquired. (b) When a notice is served under clause (a), the provisions of sub-sections (2) to (6) of section 38 shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary.
47. Interim provision pending preparation of Development Plan.—	Where a Planning and Development Authority, in the exercise of its functions and powers with respect to any area under it, is required to have regard to the provisions of a Development Plan before such Development Plan has become operative, the Planning and Development Authority shall have regard to the provisions which in its opinion will be required to be included in such plan for securing the proper planning of the concerned area.

	CHAPTER - VIII
	Town Planning Schemes
48. Making of town planning scheme and its scope.—	(1) Subject to the provisions of this Regulation, a Planning and Development Authority may for the purpose of implementing the proposals contained in the Development Plan, make one or more town planning schemes for the area within its jurisdiction or any part thereof, and shall submit such schemes in draft to the Government along with a plan showing the area proposed to be included. (2) A town planning scheme may make provision for all or any of the following matters, namely:— (a) the laying out or re-laying out of land either vacant or already built upon; (b) the filling up, or reclamation of low-lying swamp or unhealthy areas or leveling up of land; (c) the laying out of new streets or roads, construction, diversion, extension, alteration, improvement and closing of streets, roads and

	communications; (d) the construction, alteration and removal of buildings, bridges and other structures; (e) the allotment or reservation of land for roads, open spaces, gardens, recreational grounds, schools, markets, green belts and dairies, transport facilities and public purposes of all kinds; (f) drainage, inclusive of sewerage, surface or sub-soil drainage and sewage disposal; (g) lighting; (h) water supply; (i) the preservation of objects of historical or national interest or natural beauty and of buildings actually used for religious purposes and development thereof; (j) the reservation of land to the extent of ten percent or such percentage as near thereto as possible of the total area covered under the scheme, for the purpose of providing housing accommodation to the members of socially

	and economically backward classes of people; (k) the imposition of conditions and restrictions in regard to the open space to be maintained around buildings, the percentage of building area for a plot, the number, size, height and character of buildings allowed in specified areas, the purposes to which buildings in specified areas may or may not be appropriated, the sub-division of plots, the discontinuance of objectionable uses of land in any area in reasonable periods, parking spaces and loading and unloading space for any building and the size of projections and advertisement signs; and (l) such other matters not inconsistent with the objects of this Regulation as may be prescribed.
49. Land in respect of which a town planning scheme may be made.—	(1) A town planning scheme may be made in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation in respect of any land which is— (i) in the course of development, (ii) likely to be used for building purposes, and

	(iii) already built upon. (2) For the purposes of this section, the expression “land likely to be used for building purposes” shall include any land likely to be used as, or for the purpose of providing, open spaces, roads, streets, parks, pleasure or recreation grounds, parking spaces or for the purpose of executing any work upon or under the land incidental to a town planning scheme, whether in the nature of a building work or not.
50. Consent of Government to the publication of draft scheme.—	(1) As soon as may be, after a draft scheme has been submitted to the Government under section 48, but not later than the time prescribed, the Government may, either give its consent to the publication of the draft scheme or direct the Planning and Development Authority to make such modifications in the draft scheme as it thinks fit and thereupon the Planning and Development Authority shall make those modifications. (2) The Government shall, if any modifications have been directed by it, give its consent to the publication of the draft scheme by the Planning and

	Development Authority, after such modifications have been made.
51. Publication of draft scheme.—	(1) As soon as may be, after the consent of the Government to the publication of the draft scheme was given under section 50, the Planning and Development Authority shall publish by notification and also in one or more local newspapers the draft scheme indicating therein the place or places where copies of the same may be inspected, and inviting objections in writing from any parson with respect to the draft scheme within such period as may be specified: Provided that no such period shall be less than two months from the date on which the draft scheme is published in the Official Gazette: Provided further that no such publication under this sub-section in respect of the draft scheme shall be required where land covered by the draft scheme had already been acquired and the execution of the scheme does not affect the interests of any person. (2) The publication of a notification under sub-section (1) shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the

	Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013, be deemed to be a notification duly made under section 11 of the said Act.	Central Act 1 of 1894.
52. Contents of draft schemes.—	A draft town planning scheme shall contain the following particulars, namely:— (a) the area, ownership and tenure of each original plot, the land allotted or reserved under clause (e) of sub-section (2) of section 48 with a general indication of the uses to which such land is to be put and the terms and conditions subject to which such land is to be put to such uses; (b) the extent to which it is proposed to alter the boundaries of original plots; (c) an estimate of the net cost of the scheme to be borne by the Planning and Development Authority; (d) a full description of all the details of the scheme under such clauses of sub-section (2) of section 48 as may be applicable; (e) the laying out or re-laying out of the

	land either vacant or already built upon; (f) the filling up or reclamation of low-lying swamp or unhealthy areas, or leveling up of land; and (g) any other prescribed particulars.
53. Reconstituted plot.—	(1) In a draft scheme, the size and shape of every reconstituted plot shall be determined, as far as may be, to render it suitable for building purposes and where the plot is already built upon, to ensure that the building as far as possible complies with the provisions of the scheme as regards open spaces. (2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), a draft scheme may contain proposals— (a) to form a reconstituted plot by the alteration of the boundaries of an original plot; (b) to form a reconstituted plot by the transfer, wholly or partly, of adjoining lands; (c) to provide with the consent of the owners that two or more original plots each of which is held in ownership in

	severalty or in joint ownership, shall with, or without alteration of boundaries, be held in ownership in common as a final plot; (d) to transfer the ownership of a plot from one person to another; and (e) to allot a plot to any owner dispossessed of the land in furtherance of the scheme.
54. Inclusion of additional area in draft scheme.—	If at any time before a draft scheme is submitted to the Government under section 60, the Planning and Development Authority is of the opinion either on its own motion or on any representation made to it, that an additional area should be included within the said scheme, the Planning and Development Authority may, after informing the Government and giving notice in the Official Gazette and also in one or more local newspapers, include such additional area in the scheme, and thereupon all the provisions of this Regulation shall apply in relation to such additional area as they apply to any area originally included in the scheme; and the draft scheme shall be prepared for the original area and such additional area.
55. Power of Government to	(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of

require Planning and Development Authority to make a scheme.—	this Chapter, the Government may, after making such inquiry as it deems necessary, by notification, require any Planning and Development Authority to make and publish in the prescribed manner and submit for its sanction, a draft scheme in respect of any land in regard to which a town planning scheme may be made under section 49. (2) If the Planning and Development Authority fails to make a scheme within three months from the date of direction under sub-section (1), the Government may, by notification, appoint an officer to make and submit a draft scheme to the Government, and thereupon the provisions of this Regulation shall, so far as may be, apply to the making of such scheme.
56. Power of Government to suspend rule, bye-law, etc.—	(1) When a Planning and Development Authority has published a draft scheme under section 51 or the Government has published a notification under sub-section (1) of section 55, the Government may, by order suspend to such extent as may be necessary for the proper carrying out of the scheme, any rule, bye-law, regulation, notification or order made or issued under any law for the time being in force in the Union

	Territory. (2) Any order issued under sub-section (1) shall cease to operate on the Government refusing to sanction the scheme under section 60 or on the date of coming into force of the final scheme, as the case maybe.
57. Disputed ownership.—	(1) Where there is a disputed claim as to the ownership of any piece of land included in an area in respect of which the Planning and Development Authority has published a draft scheme under section 51 or in an area included in such scheme under section 54 and any entry in the Record of Rights or Mutation Register relevant to that disputed claim is inaccurate or inconclusive summary, an inquiry may be held, on an application made by the Planning and Development Authority at any time prior to the date on which the Planning and Development Authority draws up the draft scheme for submission to the Government under section 60, by such officer as the Government may appoint for the purpose of deciding the owner for the purposes of this Regulation. (2) The decision of the officer appointed under sub-section (1) shall not

	be subject to appeal but it shall not operate as a bar to a regular suit. (3) The decision referred to in sub-section (1) shall, in the event of a Civil Court passing a decree which is inconsistent therewith, be corrected, modified or rescinded in accordance with such decree as soon as practicable after such decree has been brought to the notice of the Planning and Development Authority either by the Civil Court or by some person erected by such decree. (4) Where the decree of a Civil Court referred to in sub-section (3) is passed after the concerned scheme is approved by the Government such scheme shall be deemed to have been suitably varied by reason of such decree.
58. Power to hand over possession of land in advance of town planning scheme.—	(1) Where a Planning and Development Authority is of opinion that it is necessary to undertake forthwith any of the works referred to in section 52 and included in a draft scheme, the Planning and Development Authority shall make an application to the Government to vest in it the land shown in such scheme. (2) On receipt of the application made under sub-section (1), the

Government may, if satisfied that it is urgently necessary in the public interest to empower the Planning and Development Authority to enter into the land for the purpose of executing any such work, by notification direct such Authority to take over possession of the land, and may also fix the period during which the execution of the said work shall be completed:

Provided that the period so fixed may for sufficient reasons be extended by the Government from time to time.

(3) Where a direction has been issued under sub-section (2), the Planning and Development Authority shall give a notice in the prescribed manner to the person interested in the land requiring him to give possession of his land to the Planning and Development Authority or any person authorised by it in this behalf within a period of one month from the date of service of such notice and if such possession is not delivered within the period specified in the notice, the Planning and Development Authority shall forcibly take over possession of the land and such land shall thereupon vest absolutely in the Planning and Development Authority free from all encumbrances.

(4) If the Planning and Development Authority is opposed or impeded in taking possession of the land under sub-section (3), it shall request the District Magistrate having jurisdiction, to enforce the delivery of possession of the land to it and such Magistrate shall take or cause to be taken such steps and use or cause to be used such force as may reasonably be necessary for securing the delivery of possession of the land to the Planning and Development Authority.

Explanation. — The power to take steps under this sub-section shall include the power to enter upon any land or other property whatsoever.

(5) The owner of the land the possession of which is taken over by the Planning and Development Authority under this section, shall be entitled to an interest at the rate of four percent per annum on the amount determined under section 62 as compensation payable to him in respect of the said land from the date on which such possession is taken over till the date on which the scheme in which the land is included comes into force or till the land is restored to the

	owner under sub-section (6), as the case may be, whichever is earlier. (6) If the Planning and Development Authority has not fully executed within the period fixed under sub-section (2), any work on the land for which the land was vested in it, the Prescribed Authority shall make or tender to the owner or the person interested in the land such compensation for the damage, if any, done to the land as he may think reasonable and shall restore the land to the owner or the person interested therein.
59. Withdrawal of scheme.—	(1) If at any time before a draft scheme, with the modifications is submitted to the Government under section 60, a representation is made to the Planning and Development Authority by a majority of the owners in the area that the scheme should be withdrawn, the Planning and Development Authority shall forward such representations together with its comments, if any, to the Government. (2) After making such inquiry as it may think fit, the Government may, by notification, direct that the scheme shall be withdrawn; and upon such withdrawal, no further proceedings shall be taken in regard to such scheme.

60. Consideration of objections and submission of scheme to the Government for approval.—	(1) If, within one month from the date of publication of a draft scheme under section 51, any person affected by such scheme communicates in writing to the Planning and Development Authority any objection relating to such scheme, the Planning and Development Authority shall consider such objection and may, at any time before submitting the scheme to the Government, as hereinafter provided, modify such scheme in such manner as it thinks fit. (2) The Planning and Development Authority shall submit the draft scheme within four months from the date of its publication under section 51, with such modifications as may have been communicated to it, to the Government and shall apply for its sanction. (3) After receiving such application and after making such inquiry as it may think fit, the Government, may, by notification, within six months from the date of its submission under sub-section (2), either sanction such scheme with or without modifications and subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose, or return the scheme to the Planning and Development Authority for the preparation of a fresh draft scheme in accordance with such directions as the Government may issue in this behalf.

(4) If the Government sanctions a scheme under sub-section (3), it shall be deemed to be a final scheme under the provisions of this Regulation and the Planning and Development Authority shall publish in a local newspaper, a public notice with regard to the sanction of such scheme and indicate therein the place or places where copies of the scheme so sanctioned may be inspected.

(5) The public notice issued under sub-section (4) shall also specify a date (which shall not be earlier than one month after the date of publication of such notice) on which the final scheme shall come into force.

(6) The publication by notification of the sanction of the final scheme, shall notwithstanding anything contained in the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013, be deemed to be a declaration duly made

	under section 19 of the said Regulation. (7) On and after the date specified in the public notice, a final scheme shall have effect as if it were enacted in this Regulation.
61. Effect of final scheme.—	(1) On the day on which the final scheme comes into force— (a) all lands required by the Planning and Development Authority shall, unless it is otherwise determined in such scheme, vest absolutely in the Planning and Development Authority free from all encumbrances; and (b) all rights in the original plots which have been reconstituted shall determine and the reconstituted plots shall become subject to the rights settled by the Planning and Development Authority. (2) On and after the date on which the final scheme comes into force, any person continuing occupy any land which he is not entitled to occupy under the final scheme shall, in accordance with the prescribed procedure, be summarily evicted by the Planning and Development Authority.

62. Determination of certain matters by the Planning and Development Authority.—	(1) As soon as may be after public notice of the sanction of the final scheme has been published in the Official Gazette under section 60, but not later than the time prescribed, the Planning and Development Authority shall, in accordance with the prescribed procedure proceed to— (a) define, demarcate and decide the areas allotted to, or reserved, for a public purpose or purposes of the Planning and Development Authority, and also the final plots; (b) decide the person or persons to whom a final plot is to be allotted and when such plot is to be allotted to persons in ownership in common, decide the shares of such persons; (c) estimate the value of, and fix the difference between the values of, the original plots and the final plots included in the final scheme, in accordance with the provisions contained in clause (f) of sub-section (1) of section 78; (d) estimate the compensation payable for the loss of the area of the original plot in accordance with the

(l) determine the amount to be deducted from, or added to, as the case may be, the contribution leviable from a person in accordance with the provisions contained in section 81;

(m) provide for the total or partial transfer of any right in an original plot to a final plot or provide for the extinction of any right in an original plot in accordance with the provisions contained in section 82;

(n) where a plot is subject to a mortgage with possession or a lease, decide the proportion of compensation payable to, or contribution payable by, the mortgagee or lessee on one hand and the mortgagor or lessor on the other;

(o) estimate with reference to claims made before it, after due notice is given in the prescribed manner, the compensation to be paid to the owner of any property or right injuriously affected by the making of a scheme in accordance with the provisions contained in section 83;

(p) determine the period within which the works provided in the scheme shall be completed by the Planning and Development Authority:

Provided that the Planning and Development Authority may make

	variations in the final scheme subject to the condition that any variation estimated by it to involve an increase of ten percent in the total cost of the scheme or rupees one lakh whichever is lower, shall require the sanction of the Government: Provided further that the Planning and Development Authority shall make no substantial variation without the consent of the Government and without hearing any objections which may be raised by the owners concerned. (2) The Government may, if it thinks fit, whether the period prescribed for deciding all the matters referred to in sub-section (1) has expired or not, extend by notification, the period for deciding all the matters referred to in sub-section(1).
63. Appeal.—	(1) (a) From every decision of the Planning and Development Authority in matters arising out of clauses (a), (b), (c), (n) and (o) of sub-section (1) of section 62, an appeal shall lie within one month from the date of such decision, to the Prescribed Authority. (b) Any person aggrieved by the

decision in appeal of the Prescribed Authority in matters referred to in clause (a), may appeal, within sixty days from the date of decision of the Prescribed Authority in appeal, to the District Judge within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the area included in the scheme is situated.

(c) The District Judge may transfer the appeal filed before him to the Additional District Judge for disposal.

(d) The District Judge or the Additional District Judge, as the case may be, after making such enquiry as he thinks fit, may either direct the Planning and Development Authority to reconsider its proposals or accept, modify, vary or reject the proposals of the Planning and Development Authority and shall decide all matters arising out of the matters referred to in clause(a).

(e) The decision of the District Judge or the Additional District Judge, as the case may be, shall be final and binding on all persons. A copy of the decision in appeal shall be sent to the Planning and Development Authority.

	(2) (a) Any decision of the Planning and Development Authority in matters arising out of clauses (d) to (m) (both inclusive) and clause (p) of sub-section (1) of section 62 shall be forthwith communicated to the party concerned and any party aggrieved by such decision may, within sixty days from the date of communication of the decision, appeal to the Tribunal of Appeal appointed under section 64. (b) The provisions of sections 5, 12, and 14 of the Limitation Act, 1963, shall apply to appeals preferred under this section	Central Act 36 of 1963
64. Constitution of Tribunal of Appeal.—	(1) The Government shall, for the purpose of hearing and deciding appeals under sub-section (2) of section 63, appoint a Tribunal of Appeal (hereinafter referred to as the Tribunal). (2) The Tribunal shall consist of a Chairman and two assessors. (3) The Chairman shall be the District Judge or such other Civil Judge as may be appointed by the Government on the recommendation of the District Judge. (4) The Chairman shall appoint

	suitable persons as assessors who shall, as far as possible, have knowledge or experience in town and country planning, valuation of land or civil engineering. (5) The Chairman may remove any assessor appointed under sub-section (4) from his office on the ground of incompetence or misconduct or for any other good and sufficient reason: Provided that no assessor shall be removed from his office except after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard. (6) If any assessor is removed from his office or dies or refuses or neglects to act, or becomes incapable of acting, as such assessor, the Chairman shall appoint another person as assessor under sub-section (4).
65. Place where Tribunal may sit.—	The Tribunal may sit either at the headquarters of the court presided over by the Chairman or at any other place within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such court, which he may deem convenient for the disposal of the appeal.
66. Chairman to decide all questions of law and	It shall be the duty of the Chairman of the Tribunal to decide all questions of law and procedure arising in the appeal and it shall

procedure.—	be his duty to decide all other questions in consultation with the two assessors or either of them: Provided that, where both the assessors disagree with the Chairman, he may disband the assessors and appoint fresh assessors; and, where he does so, the appeal shall be heard de novo in the presence of the fresh assessors so appointed.
67. Powers of Tribunal to decide matter finally.—	(1) The Tribunal shall, after making such inquiry as it may think fit, decide all matters in respect of the appeals preferred to it, and in particular, may either confirm the proposals of the Planning and Development Authority or direct it, where necessary, to reconsider, vary or modify its proposals. (2) Every decision of the Tribunal on appeal shall be final and binding on all persons including the Planning and Development Authority. A copy of the decision in appeal shall be sent to the Planning and Development Authority.
68. Tribunal not to be court.—	Nothing contained in this Regulation shall be deemed to constitute the Tribunal to be a court.
69. Remuneration of	(1) The assessors shall, save where they are salaried Officers of

assessors and payment of incidental expenses of Tribunal.—	Government, be entitled to such remuneration, either by way of monthly salary or by way of fees or partly by way of salary and partly by way of fees, as the Government may, from time to time, decide: Provided that, in exceptional cases where the scheme is a large one or the work involved is complicated, the Government may authorise the Chairman and such of the assessors as are salaried Government Officers to receive such special salary or remuneration, as the Government may, by order, decide from time to time. (2) The salary of the Chairman of the Tribunal or an assessor who is a salaried Government Officer, any other remuneration payable under sub-section (1) and all expenses incidental to the working of the Tribunal shall, unless the Government otherwise determines, be defrayed out of the funds of the Planning and Development Authority and shall be added to the cost of the scheme.
70. Decision of Planning and Development Authority to be final in certain matters.—	(1) Where no appeal has been preferred under section 63, the decision of the Planning and Development Authority shall be final and binding on the parties.

	(2) Where an appeal has been preferred under section 63 and a copy of the decision in appeal is received by the Planning and Development Authority, it shall, make such variations in the final scheme in accordance with such decision. (3) A Planning and Development Authority may also rectify such errors or omissions, if any, as may have been brought to its notice after publication of public notice of the sanction of the final scheme. (4) Where any variations are made in the final scheme under sub-section (2) or any errors or omissions are rectified under sub-section (3), the Planning and Development Authority shall forward a copy of the final scheme as so varied and rectified to the Government for approval along with copies of the decisions in appeals.
71. Power to enforce scheme.—	(1) On and after the day on which the final scheme comes into force, the Planning and Development Authority may, after giving the prescribed notice and in accordance with the provisions of the scheme— (a) remove, pull down or alter any

building or other work in the area included in the scheme, which is such as to contravene the scheme or in the erection or carrying out of which, any provision of the scheme has not been complied with;

(b) execute any work which it is the duty of any person to execute under the scheme, in any case where it appears to the Planning and Development Authority that delay in the execution of the work would prejudice the efficient operation of the scheme.

(2) Any expenses incurred by the Planning and Development Authority under this section may be recovered from the persons in default or from the owner of the plot in the manner provided for the recovery of the sums due to the Planning and Development Authority under the provisions of this Regulation.

(3) If any question arises as to whether any building or work contravenes a town planning scheme, or whether any provision of a town planning scheme is not complied with in the erection of any such building, it shall be referred to the Government or Prescribed Authority if authorised by the Government in this

	behalf, and the decision of the Government or the Prescribed Authority, as the case may be, shall be final and binding on all persons.
72. Power of Planning and Development Authority to evict summarily.—	On and after the day on which a final scheme comes into force, any person continuing to occupy any land which he is not entitled to occupy under the final scheme may, in accordance with the prescribed procedure, be summarily evicted by the Planning and Development Authority or any of its officers authorised in that behalf by that Authority. If the Planning and Development Authority is opposed or impeded in evicting such person or taking possession of the land from such person, the District Magistrate shall, at the request of the Planning and Development Authority, enforce the eviction of such person or secure delivery of possession of the land to the Planning and Development Authority.
73. Power to vary scheme on ground of error, irregularity or informality.—	(1) If after the final scheme comes into force, the Planning and Development Authority considers that the scheme is defective on account of any error, defect or irregularity, the Planning and Development Authority may apply in writing to the Government for the variation of the scheme.

(2) If, on receiving such application or otherwise, the Government is satisfied that the variation required is not substantial, the Government shall publish a draft of such variation in the prescribed manner.

(3) The draft variation published under sub-section (2) shall state every amendment proposed to be made in the scheme, and if any such amendment relates to a matter specified in any of the clauses (a) to (k) of sub-section (2) of section 48 the draft variation shall also contain such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(4) The draft variation shall be open to the inspection of the public at the office of the Planning and Development Authority.

(5) Within one month of the date of publication of the draft variation, any person affected thereby may communicate in writing his objections to such variation to the Government through the Chief Town Planner and send a copy thereof to the Planning and Development Authority.

(6) On the expiry of the period

	referred to in sub-section (5), the Government may, after consulting the Chief Town Planner and the Planning and Development Authority and after making such inquiry as it may think fit, by notification, approve the variation with or without modification or refuse to make the variation. (8) From the date of the notification making the variation, with or without modifications such variation shall take effect as if it were incorporated in the scheme.
74. Power to vary or revoke Town Planning Scheme.—	(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 73, a town planning scheme may at any time be varied or revoked by a subsequent scheme made, published and sanctioned in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation. (2) The Government may, either on its own motion or on the application of the Planning and Development Authority, after making such inquiry as it deems fit and after giving the Planning and Development Authority concerned an opportunity of being heard, by notification, revoke a town planning scheme, if it is satisfied that under the special circumstances of the case the scheme should be revoked.

75. Compensation when the final scheme is varied or revoked and apportionment of costs.—	(1) If at any time after the final scheme has come into force, such scheme is varied or revoked, any person who has incurred expenditure for the purpose of complying with the provisions of such scheme, as it stood before such variation shall be entitled to receive compensation from the Planning and Development Authority, in so far as any such expenditure is rendered abortive by reason of the variation or revocation of such scheme. (2) In the event of sanction to a final scheme being refused by the Government or a final scheme being revoked, the Government may direct that the costs of the scheme shall be borne by the Planning and Development Authority or be paid to the Planning and Development Authority by the owners concerned, in such proportion as the Government may in each case determine.
76. Joint town planning scheme.—	(1) When two or more Planning and Development Authorities are of the opinion that the interests of contiguous areas within their respective jurisdictions can best be served by the constitution of a Joint Town Planning Authority and the Government agrees with such opinion, a Joint Town Planning Authority shall be constituted.

(2) A Joint Town Planning Authority shall consist of such number of representatives of each of the several Planning and Development Authorities concerned as may be prescribed and elected in the prescribed manner and of persons nominated by the Government in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) A Joint Town Planning Authority, when duly constituted, shall make a declaration of its intention to make a joint town planning scheme in respect of the contiguous areas in the manner provided in section 48 and thereafter the said Authority shall have all the powers and be liable to all the duties of the Planning and Development Authority under this Regulation and all the provisions in respect of the procedure for the preparation of a town planning scheme so far as may be, apply to a joint town planning scheme.

(4) A draft joint town planning scheme shall specify the parts of the scheme to be executed by the several Planning and Development Authorities in the several contiguous areas and the

	several parts of the scheme shall, when notified in the final scheme, have effect in the several contiguous areas, as if they were separate schemes: Provided that any part of a joint town planning scheme may be executed jointly by two or more Planning and Development Authorities.
77. Delegation of certain powers of Joint Town Planning Authority.—	A Joint Town Planning Authority, may by order in writing, direct that all or any of the powers conferred on it by section 58, subsection (1) of section 62 and section 71 shall, in such circumstances and under such conditions if any, as may be specified in the order, be exercised by such officer as the Joint Town Planning Authority may specify in the order.
78. Costs of a scheme.—	(1) The costs of a town planning scheme shall include— (a) all sums payable by the Planning and Development Authority under the provisions of this Regulation, which are not specifically excluded from the costs of the scheme; (b) all sums spent or estimated to be spent by the Planning and Development Authority in the making and in the execution of the scheme;

(c) all sums payable as compensation for land reserved or designated for a public purpose or purposes of the Planning and Development Authority, which is solely beneficial to the owner or residents within the area of the scheme;

(d) such portion of the sums payable as compensation for and reserved or designated for a public purpose or purposes of the Planning and Development Authority, which is beneficial partly to the owners or residents within the area of the scheme and partly to the general public, as is attributable to the benefit accruing to the owners or residents within the area of the scheme from such reservation or designation;

(e) all legal expenses incurred by the Planning and Development Authority in the making and in the execution of the scheme;

(f) any amount by which the total of the values of the original plots exceeds the total of the values of the plots included in the final scheme, each of such plots being estimated at its market value on the

	date of publication of the draft scheme, with all the buildings and works thereon on that date and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme other than improvements due to alteration of its boundaries. (2) If, in any case, the total of the values of the plots included in the final scheme exceeds the total of values of the original plots, each of such plots being estimated in the manner provided in clause (f) of sub-section (1), then the amount of such excess shall be deducted in arriving at the costs of the scheme, as specified in sub-section (1).
79. Calculation of increment.—	For the purposes of this Regulation, the increment shall be deemed to be the amount by which on the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme, the market value of a plot included in the final scheme estimated on the assumption that the scheme has been completed would exceed on the same date the market value of the same plot estimated without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme: Provided that in estimating such values, the value of buildings or other works erected or in the course of erection on such plot shall not be taken into consideration.

80. Contribution towards costs of scheme.—	(1) The costs of a town planning scheme shall be met wholly or in part by contributions to be levied by the Planning and Development Authority on each plot included in the final scheme calculated in proportion to the increment which is estimated to accrue in respect of such plot by the Planning and Development Authority: Provided that— (a) no such contribution shall exceed one-third of the increment estimated by the Planning and Development Authority to accrue in respect of such plot; (b) where a plot is subject to a mortgage with possession or to a lease, the Planning and Development Authority shall determine in what proportion the mortgagee or lessee on the one hand and the mortgagor or lessor on the other shall pay such contribution; (c) no such contribution shall be levied on a plot used, allotted or reserved for a public purpose or purposes of the

	Planning and Development Authority which is solely for the benefit of the owners of plots, or residents within the area of such scheme; and (d) the contribution levied on a plot used, allotted or reserved for a public purpose, or purposes of the Planning and Development Authority, which is beneficial partly to the owners or residents within the area of the scheme and partly to the general public shall be calculated in proportion to the benefit estimated to accrue to the general public from such use, allotment or reservation. (2) The owner of each plot included in the final scheme shall be primarily liable for the payment of the contribution leviable in respect of such plot.
81. Certain amount to be added or deducted from contribution leviable from a person.—	The amount by which the total value of the plots included in the final scheme with all the buildings and works there on allotted to a person falls short of, or exceeds the total value of the original plots with all the buildings and works thereon of such person shall, as the case may be, be deducted from or added to the contribution leviable from such person, each of such plots being estimated at its market value on the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme or the date of a notification under section 55 and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme other than improvements due to the alteration of its boundaries.

82. Transfer of right from original to reconstituted plot or extinction of such right.—	Any right in an original plot which in the opinion of the Planning and Development Authority is capable of being transferred wholly or in part without prejudice to the making of a town planning scheme to a reconstituted plot shall be so transferred and any right in an original plot which in the opinion of the Planning and Development Authority is not capable of being so transferred shall be extinguished: Provided that an agricultural lease shall not be transferred from an original plot to a reconstituted plot without the consent of all the parties to such lease.
83. Compensation in respect of property or right injuriously affected by scheme.—	(1) The owner of any property or right which is injuriously affected by the making of a town planning scheme shall, if he makes a claim before the Planning and Development Authority within the prescribed time, be entitled to obtain compensation in respect thereof from the Planning and Development Authority or partly from the Planning and Development

	Authority and partly from such person as the Planning and Development Authority may in each case determine. (2) For the purposes of this section, the market value of any property or right on the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme or the date of a notification under section 55 without reference to the improvements contemplated in the scheme shall be deemed to be the value of such property or right.
84. Exclusion or limitation of compensation in certain cases.—	(1) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any property or private right which is alleged to be injuriously affected by reason of any provisions contained in the town planning scheme, if under any other law for the time being in force applicable to the area for which such scheme is made, compensation is payable for such injurious affection. (2) Any property or private right shall not be deemed to be injuriously affected under this section by reason merely of any provision included in a town planning scheme, which, for the purpose of providing amenities in the area included in such scheme or part thereof, imposes any conditions and restrictions in regard to any of the matters specified in clause (a) of section 52.

85. Provision for cases in which amount payable to owner exceeds amount due from him.—	If the owner of an original plot is not provided with a plot in the final scheme or if the contribution to be levied from him under section 80 is less than the total amount payable to him under any of the provisions of this Regulation, the net amount of his loss shall be payable to him by the Planning and Development Authority in cash or in such other manner as may be agreed upon by the parties.
86. Provisions for cases in which value of developed plots is less than the amount payable by owner.—	(1) If, for any reason the total amount, which would be due to the Planning and Development Authority under the provisions of this Regulation from the owner of a plot to be included in the final scheme exceeds the value of such plot estimated on the assumption that the scheme has been completed, the Planning and Development Authority may direct the owner of such plot to make payment to the Planning and Development Authority of the amount of such excess. (2) If the owner fails to make the payment referred to in sub-section (1) within the prescribed period, the Planning and Development Authority shall acquire the original plot of such defaulter on

	payment of compensation estimated at its market value on the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme or the date of notification under section 55 and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme, to the owner and other persons interested in the plot, and thereupon the said plot included in the final scheme shall vest absolutely in the Planning and Development Authority free from all encumbrances: Provided that the payment made by the Planning and Development Authority on account of the value of the original plot shall not be included in the cost of the scheme.
87. Payment by adjustment of accounts.—	All payments due to be made to any person by the Planning and Development Authority under this Regulation, shall, as far as possible, be made by adjustment in such person's account with the Planning and Development Authority in respect of the plot concerned or of any other plot in which he has an interest and failing such adjustment shall be paid in cash or in such other manner as may be agreed upon by the parties.
88. Payment of net amount due to Planning and	(1) The net amount payable under the provisions of this Regulation by the owner of a plot included in the final

Development Authority.—	scheme, may, at his option, be paid in lump sum or in annual installments not exceeding ten. If the owner elects to pay the amount by installments, interest at the rate of six per cent per annum shall be charged on the net amount payable. If the owner of a plot fails to so election or before the date specified in a notice issued to him, he shall be deemed to have elected to pay the contribution by installments and the interest on the contribution shall be calculated from the date specified in the notice. (2) Where two or more plots included in the final scheme are in the same ownership, the net amount payable by such owner under the provisions of this Regulation shall be distributed over his several plots in proportion to the increment which is estimated to accrue in respect of each plot, unless the owner and the Planning and Development Authority agree to a different method of distribution.
89. Power of Planning and Development Authority to make agreements.—	(1) A Planning and Development Authority shall be competent to make any agreement with any person in respect of any matter which is to be provided for in a town planning scheme, subject to the power of the Government to modify or

	disallow such agreement, and unless it is otherwise expressly provided therein, such agreement shall take effect on and from the date on which the town planning scheme comes into force. (2) An agreement made under sub-section (1) shall not in any way affect the determination of the matter specified in section 83 or the rights of third parties: Provided that, if the agreement is modified by the Government, under that sub-section, either party shall have the option of avoiding it if it so elects.
90. Recovery of arrears.—	(1) Any sum due to the Planning and Development Authority under this Regulation or any regulation made thereunder shall be a first charge on the plot on which it is due, subject to the prior payment of land revenue, if any, due to the Government thereon. (2) Any sum due to the Planning and Development Authority under this Regulation or any regulation made thereunder which is not paid on the date fixed by the Planning and Development Authority, of which due notice is given, shall be recoverable by it by distress and sale of the goods of the defaulter and may

	be recovered from him by a suit in any court of competent jurisdiction. (3) In lieu of the recovery of the dues of the Planning and Development Authority in the manner provided under sub-section (2) or after recovery in part of the dues of the Planning and Development Authority in the manner provided in sub-section (2), any sum due or the balance of any sum due, as the case may be, by such defaulter may be recovered from him by a suit in any court of competent jurisdiction.
91. Power to borrow money for Development Plan for making or execution of a town planning scheme.—	(1) A Planning and Development Authority may borrow money at such rate of interest and for such period and upon such terms, as the Government may approve, for the purpose of a Development Plan or the making or execution of a town planning scheme. (2) Any expenses incurred by a Planning and Development Authority or the Government under this Regulation in connection with the making and execution of a Development Plan or a town planning scheme shall be defrayed out of the funds of the Planning and Development Authority.

	CHAPTER - IX
	Levy, Assessment and Recovery of Development Charge
92. Levy of Development Charge.—	(1) Subject to the provisions of this Regulation and the rules made thereunder, and with the previous sanction of the Government, every Planning and Development Authority shall, by a notification, levy a charge (hereinafter called the Development Charge) on the carrying out of any development or the institution or change of use of land for which permission is required to be obtained under Chapter VII, in the whole or any part of the Planning area, at the rates specified in section 92: Provided that different rates may be specified for different parts of the planning area. (2) The Development Charge shall be leviable on the person who undertakes or carries out such development and institutes or changes any such use. (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), no

	Development Charge shall be levied on the development or institution, or change of use of any land vested in, or under the control or possession of, the Central Government, the Government or any local authority. (4) The Government may by rules provide for exemption from the levy of development charge on the development, institution or change of use of any land under this section.
93. Levy of processing fee/fees for change of Zone.—	(1) The Government may, by notification, levy a fee to be charged for processing of applications filed with the Planning and Development Authority, for change of Zone in notified Outline Development Plans, Comprehensive Development Plans and Zoning Plans. (2) The Government may, by notification, levy a fee to be charged for change of Zone in Outline Development Plans, Comprehensive Development Plans and Zoning Plans from the notified Zone to other Zone.”
94. Rates of development charge.—	The maximum and minimum development charges and the classification on the basis of which such maximum and minimum charges are fixed shall be such as may be prescribed.

95. Rate of processing fee/fees for change of Zone. —	The rate of processing fee or fees for change of Zone leviable under section 93 shall be such as may be notified by the Government
96. Assessment of Development charge.—	(1) Any person who intends to carry out any development, or to institute, or change, any use of any land for which permission under Chapter VII is necessary, whether he has applied for such permission or not or who has commenced the carrying out of any such development or has carried out such development or instituted or changed any such use, shall apply to the Planning and Development Authority in the manner prescribed for assessment of development charge payable in respect thereof. (2) The Planning and Development Authority shall, on such application being made, or if no such application is made, after serving a notice on the person liable for Development Charge, determine in the manner specified in sub-sections (3) and (4), the Development Charge, if any, leviable in respect of that development or use. (3) The Town Planning Officer shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity

of being heard to the person who has made an application under sub-section (1) or who has been served with a notice under sub-section (2) make a report to the Planning and Development Authority.

(4) After taking into consideration the report of the Town Planning Officer made under sub-section (3), the Planning and Development Authority shall assess the amount of Development Charge by an order:

Provided that—

(a) where permission under Chapter VII has not been granted for carrying out the said development, the Planning and Development Authority may postpone the assessment of the Development Charge;

(b) where the application relates to the carrying out of any development in any land, the Planning and Development Authority may refuse to assess the Development Charge payable in respect thereof, unless it is satisfied that the applicant has an interest in the land sufficient to enable him to carry out such development, or that the applicant will

	carry out the development within such period as the Planning and Development Authority considers appropriate; (c) where the application relates to the institution or change of any use of land, the Planning and Development Authority may refuse to assess the amount of Development Charge payable in respect thereof unless it is satisfied that the use will be instituted within such period as the Planning and Development Authority considers appropriate. (5) The Planning and Development Authority shall deliver or serve a copy of such order on the applicant or the person liable for the Development Charge. (6) An order of assessment made under this section shall, subject to the provisions of section 97 be final and shall not be questioned in any court.
97. Appeals against assessment.—	(1) Any person aggrieved by an order of assessment made under section 96 may, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, appeal to the Prescribed Authority (2) On an appeal made to the

	Prescribed Authority under sub-section (1), the Chief Town Planner shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the appellant and the Planning and Development Authority concerned, make a report to the Prescribed Authority. (3) The Prescribed Authority, may, after taking into consideration the aforesaid report, and if it deems necessary, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the appellant and the Planning and Development Authority concerned, pass such order as it deems fit.
98. Development Charge to be a charge on land and to be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.—	(1) If any development of land is commenced or carried out or any use is instituted or changed without payment of the amount of the Development Charge assessed under the provisions of this Regulation, the amount of the Development Charge shall, subject to prior payment of the land revenue, if any, be a first charge upon the interest of the person so liable on the land on which development has been commenced or carried out or the use has been instituted or changed. (2) The Development Charge shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue.
