About the Moot Court Society

MOOT COURT SOCIETY 2023-2024

In our role as the Moot Court Society, we bear the principal responsibility for coordinating and facilitating all mooting-related activities at Dr. D. Y. Patil College of Law. This entails the systematic organization of moot court competitions, the implementation of structured training sessions designed to enhance the capabilities of participating students, and the rigorous oversight required to ensure that the competitions are conducted with a steadfast commitment to fairness and efficiency.

In addition to its core involvement in mooting-related initiatives, the Moot Court Society undertakes the responsibility of coordinating co-curricular events specifically designed to enhance the problem-solving capabilities of law students. These events encompass debates, discussions, and mock trials, collectively contributing to the comprehensive development of our students.

To fulfill its objectives, the Moot Court Society collaborates closely with the college administration, faculty, and other student committees. This collaborative approach ensures meticulous organization and adequate support for each event. Furthermore, proactive engagement with other law schools and organizations is actively pursued to expose students to a spectrum of experiences and perspectives, within the legal realm.

The Moot Court Society, recognizing its pivotal role, is dedicated to the promotion of excellence in both mooting and legal education at Dr. D. Y. Patil College of Law. Undoubtedly, our consistent endeavors are poised to significantly contribute to the academic and professional growth of law students, thereby solidifying our commitment to fostering a standard of excellence within the legal community.

About the Competition

NATIONAL CONSTITUTIONAL LAW MOOT COURT COMPETITION

AI Juris: Where Algorithms Meet Advocacy

The 2nd Edition of Dr. D. Y. Patil College of Law's National Constitutional Law Moot Court Competition, titled "AI Juris: Where Algorithms Meet Advocacy," the jurisprudential Rubik's Cubes of Artificial Intelligence and its collision with the legal system awaits your dissection. A platform where young legal minds can delve into the ethical minefields surrounding algorithms that intersect with legal frameworks.

Will AI be hailed as a benevolent sovereign, ushering in an era of efficient and unbiased justice, or will it be reviled as a digital despot, eroding fundamental rights and liberties? The answer lies in your arguments, meticulously crafted and powerfully presented before a panel of esteemed judges. Master the art of courtroom persuasion, for your words will shape the contours of the future, where algorithms and law converge.

Every meticulously researched argument, every passionate rebuttal, every eloquently delivered point shapes the verdict that will resonate far beyond the confines of the courtroom. The gavel awaits.
