UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner, we are not inclined to entertain the present writ petition under Article 32 of the Constitution of India. However, we grant liberty to the petitioner to approach the jurisdictional High Court(s) in respect of the prayer made in the writ petition.

At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner states that liberty may be granted to file a separate writ petition with details and particulars in respect of prayer (d) before this Court.

Without expressing any opinion we observe that writ petition if filed before this Court would be examined and considered notwithstanding the present order.

The writ petition is disposed of accordingly.

Pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
