

Desi Kaanoon presents 'Fundraising Quiz Competition' in Collaboration with Law & Society Committee, NLSIU Bangalore for ASSAM FLOOD VICTIMS [Register by August 14]

About Desi Kaanoon

Desi Kaanoon is a social-media start-up by law students, for law students. With a current following of more than fifty thousand including all social media handles, the meme and legal portal has been a proud partner for law schools and colleges promoting seminars, moot courts, MUNs, essay competitions, quiz competitions, conferences, call for papers and many more events. Besides, we have mentored more than ten thousand law aspirants to get through eminent law schools across the country. We have also organized seminars, quiz and article-writing competitions. Our goodwill has connected us with many luminaries from the legal arena.

About Law & Society Committee, NLSIU Bangalore

The Law and Society Committee, popularly known as LawSoc, is one of the only Activity Based Committees in Law School whose sphere of work is not centered on a single event or fest. LawSoc facilitates engagement with issues ranging from Gender and Sexuality, Adivasis, Naxalism, Agrarian Distress, Environmental Crisis, Mental Health, Disability and the Media, to name a few. In a nutshell, LawSoc exists in order to generate dialogue and discussion within and beyond the Law School community.

LawSoc has engaged in movie screenings and has hosted a number of lectures by legal luminaries, eminent documentary makers, exhibitions and credit courses by world renowned journalists like P. Sainath and Priyanka Bhorpujari. LawSoc has also played an instrumental role in the formation of Law School's RTI Cell, the Slum Project, Mental Health Working Group, Environment Working Group and the Public Policy Research Cell.
