

A.P. Pasupathy Joins Fox Mandal as Practice Head – Renewable Energy

Fox Mandal & Associates is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr A. P. Pasupathy, formerly the AVP – Project development at ReNew Power, as Practice Head of the Renewable Energy Practice.

Mr Pasupathy offers a comprehensive experience of more than 22 years in rendering end-to-end dynamic and sophisticated solutions not only on the legal quandaries but also on the project development pertaining to the renewable energy industry. He played an instrumental role in leading the legal and project development team/department of various notable Renewable Energy companies in the country and rooted their projects in Tamil Nadu, Karnataka, Gujarat, Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh and Maharashtra.

Prior to his association with the Firm, he steered and led the legal portfolio for wind farm/solar farm projects for various Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs) and also led the project development (including land, permit and approvals) activities for various OEMs/IPPs such as Gamesa Renewables (now Siemens Gamesa), Vestas, Bharat Light & Power (Now Enel green), SunEdison and ReNew Power.

Established in 1896, Fox Mandal is one of the oldest full-service law firms in India and has been carrying a legacy of quality and integrity through the years. With a pan-India presence, over 250 fee-earners and a broad spectrum of practice areas, the firm has had the privilege of catering to a wide range of legal requirements of a diverse clientele. Fox Mandal provides holistic services pertaining to identifying, strategizing, and mitigating legal, regulatory, policy and contractual risks in the development of renewable energy projects across the country.

Regarding the appointment, Mr Shuva Mandal, the Managing Partner of Fox Mandal says, “Pasupathy has immense knowledge and expertise as a legal practitioner owing to his long-standing association with huge organizations and varied clients. We are elated to have him on board with us and looking forward to harmonizing his goals with our vision.”
